

THE GREAT RESET: A MASS RITUAL IN MOTION

Many of you will no doubt by now have made up your minds as to whether I am revealing hidden truths or have simply lost my mind.

I do fully recognize that when a conspiracy author/researcher such as myself starts throwing around numbers to prove their point, the average person rolls their eyes and clicks off the page. And if you happen to fall into that category, I would advise you to just go ahead and close this window.

However, before you go, know that numbers are of extreme importance in occult philosophy and ritual, as I have detailed at length in my four books.

So, like it or not, here are the numbers.

THE DAWNING

Those of you who are familiar with my work know that I have explained in hopefully-not-too-excruciating detail what the Great Age is, and, more pertinently, when it ends – to be more precise, when it ends according to the dark occult beliefs of the Cryptocracy, whose opinion is really the only one that matters considering they control the entire planet and all its resources. (And for those of you unfamiliar with my work who might think I'm joking or have watched one too many James Bond movies, feel free to get off the ride right now.)

The Great Age or Great Year is created by the cycle of precession and is approximately 26,000 years in length. It is a scientific, astronomical, geophysical fact, and I'm not going to say much else about it here because I've written about it 'til I'm blue in the face and I'm tired of thinking about it. Read my books or Google it.

These two images hopefully give you some idea about the Great Age. Or, not.

To make this quick and easy, the current Great Age, according to the Masters of the Universe, comes to a close this year, 2021. Last year was the final full year of the dying Great Age, this year is the Year of Transition, and next year, 2022, is Year Zero, the first full year of the New Great Age. The subtitle of my third book, Black Jack, is “The Dawning of the New Great Age of Satan”, which, along with unprecedented current events including but not limited to the global pandemic, gives you some idea what we're in for.

COMING FULL CIRCLE

Now is the reset of the Great Age, the transition from one Great Year to the next. Call it the Great Reset.

And, wouldn't you know it, that's exactly the name the World Economic Forum has chosen for their current global initiative, which was officially announced by none other than HRH The Prince of Wales.

“In May 2020, the WEF and the Prince of Wales’s Sustainable Markets Initiative launched ‘The Great Reset’ project, a five-point plan concerned with enhancing sustainable economic growth following the global recession caused by the COVID-19 pandemic lockdowns. ‘The Great Reset’ will be the theme of WEF’s Annual Meeting in January 2021.” Yeah, yeah, yeah, whatever.

“In order to secure our future and to prosper, we need to evolve our economic model and put people and planet at the heart of global value creation,” the prince stated in his announcement of The Great Reset. “If there is one critical lesson to learn from this crisis [COVID-19], it is that we need to put nature at the heart of how we operate. We simply can’t waste more time.”

Leaving aside the feel-good blather intended to make us think the elite actually care about average folk as anything other than slave labor and potential human sacrifices, time is indeed running out. In fact, it has run out for the Old Great Age, and the elite are busy ushering in the New Grand Cycle and feverishly dedicating it to The Dark Lord.

The WEF’s Great Reset Initiative is ostensibly about making the world a more equitable place, but in reality it is a key aspect of the Cryptocracy’s in-plain-sight, in-your-face mass ritual welcoming the New Great Age of Satan. We are transitioning from the Age of Christianity to the Age of the Adversary. This ain’t your daddy’s New World Order.

EYES TO SEE

Yes, you may be thinking, but I'm not going to read your stupid books. So convince me we're in the middle of a global public ritual.

I get it. The cycle of precession is basically the earth wobbling slowly on its axis. Who really cares when one full wobble is completed and the next one begins?

The Global Elite plan practically everything—their false flags and occult rituals in particular—according to the stars, selecting astrologically auspicious occasions for their undertakings in order to secure the blessings of the Dark Powers and the success of their sinister pursuits. We are presently at a once-in-26,000-years moment. Do you not believe that the occult-obsessed rulers of this world have been planning towards this precise point in history for a very long time? Of course they have.

To wit, I have previously explained how Lafayette Square, directly adjacent the White House in Washington, DC—and the scene of mass protests last year that grabbed headlines worldwide—is a gargantuan sigil, connoting the end of the Great Age. Further, I have detailed how this sigil was invoked in the mass consciousness during the summer of 2020 as part of a series of ongoing End-of-the-Great Age public rituals.

What we are currently being subjected to, and have been relentlessly subjected to over the last five decades with increasing frequency, is one hidden-in-plain-view occult ritual after another. Of course they are cloaked in “real world” events that the average citizen has little reason to question. Of course they are invisible to the general public, suffering as they do from complete symbolic illiteracy.

ODE TO ODIN

Speaking of invisible rituals, you probably thought that this guy, Jake Angeli, one of the most recognizable characters among the horde that invaded the U.S. Capitol Building on January 6th, was just some jackass in a fur hat.

33-year-old 'QAnon Shaman' Jake Angeli. That's 33 as in the 33rd Degree of Freemasonry.

One of Mr. Angeli's highly-visible tattoos, pictured above right, is of a symbol referred to as the valknut, which has been used by some white supremacists, but, even more pertinently in this situation, has also been associated with the Norse god Odin.

Above is a screen grab from a video showing Mr. Angeli sitting at the central rostrum in the chair of the presiding officer of the Senate. A MAGA nut in a fur hat, or the Horned God assuming his place in the Seat of Power? At right is a 16th-century depiction by Olaus Magnus of Odin holding a scepter and seated on a throne.

The name Odin is derived from the reconstructed Proto-Germanic masculine theonym Wōđanaz* and translated as “lord of frenzy” or “leader of the possessed”—very fitting given the events of January 6th, which by the way was a Wednesday, the day of the week named for Odin. Odin is frequently portrayed with a beard and wielding a spear named Gungnir.

Left and center: Lee Lawrie, Odin (1939). Library of Congress John Adams Building, Washington, D.C. Right: Does that look like the tip of a typical flag staff to you? Me either. That's a spearhead.

Others in the “Horned God” family (left to right): unnamed, from Enkomi; Moloch; Baphomet.

OUR NATIONAL TEMPLE

One must keep in mind, also, that this entire affair occurred in the U.S. Capitol, thus renamed from “Congress house” in 1793 by Thomas Jefferson while serving as Secretary of State under President George Washington, intentionally invoking the famous Temple of Jupiter Optimus Maximus on the Capitoline Hill, one of the Seven Hills of Rome.

In 1833, Representative Rufus Choate stated, “We have built no national temples but the Capitol”, which is located in, of course, the District of Columbia, a historical name used to refer to the Americas and the New World. Eventually Columbia was the name applied to the female personification of the United States, although some hidden-history theorists claim that “Columbia” is in fact a secret reference to the constellation Columba, The Dove, which sits directly adjacent to Sirius, the Dog Star, and is thus an allusion to both Sirius and Isis, the Egyptian goddess with whom the constellation has a long association.

A DAY OF REVELRY

A modern-day Temple of Jupiter in the District of Isis? You decide, but here’s one thing for certain: the date of the Capitol Siege, January 6th, is the traditional date of Dionysian Revels, which gave rise to the more well-known Roman Bacchanalia. During the revels, followers of the Greek god Dionysus would, among other things, dress up as satyrs and run wildly through the streets—very similar to what occurred on Capitol Hill that fateful Wednesday.

Left: Dashwood. Right: Franklin.

In the notorious Hellfire Clubs that sprung up in Britain and Ireland during the eighteenth century, Dionysus was one of the most popular deities, and one can still see statues of the god left behind in the Hellfire Caves—one of which was named Franklin's Cave after Benjamin Franklin, a friend of the founder of the original Hellfire Club, Sir Francis Dashwood.

Left: Terracotta head of Dionysus, 1st century B.C. Right: Bacchanalia, c.1615 oil painting by Peter Paul Rubens.

A SPECIAL NUMBER

So, then, we have a stand-in for Odin sitting in the seat of power in the National Temple on the Day of Dionysian Revels ... and you thought it was just a bunch of MAGA lunatics gone wild. One might even be tempted to view it as a black mass of sorts, and perhaps that's an accurate interpretation.

In any case, in the days following the siege, the Capitol was transformed into a heavily-defended fortress, with over 25,000 National Guard troops from all 50 states and four U.S. territories being summoned to Washington, DC, to provide protection for the Presidential inauguration and preclude future acts of insurrection.

All 50 states ... that seems very symbolic, designed to send a message. Speaking of which, sometimes a number is just a number, and sometimes not.

The figure most frequently cited for the number of National Guard troops deployed to DC is 25,600, which I find very interesting, considering that I wrote about this exact number in my fourth book, THE END, published by TrineDay in 2020.

Google it and see for yourself: 25,600. All over the place.

I'm not going to repeat everything I've written on this number here, or belabor the point, but here's the main takeaway: this is not some random number—it directly relates to the number of years in the Great Age. It is the product of $4^2 \times 40^2$ (recall that 40 is a Biblical supernumber), or 16×1600 .

The White House sits essentially dead center of the 10-mile square that Washington, DC, is laid out in. Without getting into the details, the location of the White House corresponds to the Great Celestial Cross in the heavens. This cross plays a central role in tracking the passage of the Great Age, and in determining when it begins, and ends.

The address of the White House is 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, and the north-south crossing is 16th Street. In case you weren't paying attention, that's 1600 and 16. These same numbers can be found in the Book of Revelation, with reference to the River of Blood (that flows from the winepress of God's wrath), which is 1600 stadia in length and as high as a horse's bridle (16 hands, a standard measure of the day).

The number of years associated with the Great Age are thus not only encoded in the streets of Washington, DC (which is a giant star map, but that's a whole subject unto itself), and found in the Biblical account of the Apocalypse/End of Days, but now we find this same number, 25,600, embedded in the headlines across the country, and around the world, in the very Year of Transition, at the time of the Great Reset.

In closing, then, if you want to believe that 25,600 is just a number, that it's all coincidence, you go right ahead. And do yourself a favor—the next time you see something written by me, don't even bother to start reading.